DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 1-18 are objected to because of the following informalities: In each of the independent claims (second to last line), the terminology, "said steps" lacks proper antecedent basis. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 7-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 7 and all dependent claims recite limitations comprising only logic. Since "logic" does not comprise any physical element, the use of the terminology, "A system" appears to be misdescriptive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 7-12, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims recite merely logic that is not embodied on a computer readable medium.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 3627

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Duffy et al. "610.

Duffy et al. disclose, or inherently teach a network-based supply chain management system including receiving data related to the sale of goods (see at least [0022]), generating and transmitting electronic orders (see at least [0026]), tracking information (see at least [0030]), parsing data (see at least [0026]), and verifying identity (see at least [0043]).

Duffy et al. lacks the specific teaching of the system data being received from restaurants, and the data relating to the sale of goods by the restaurants.

It would have been an obvious design choice to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Duffy et al. to have the data come from "restaurants", as it is well known that restaurants often interact with suppliers and therefore would be able to "transact business in an efficient and cost efficient manner" (See Duffy, [0007]).

Relevant Prior Art

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Further, the assignee, Restaurant Services Inc. (RSI), launched a product (RSI/Link) "to collect sales, shipment, pricing, and inventory information from Burger King's 350 suppliers and distributors" (See "A Whopping Inventory Task") in 1994. Still further, the article "Burger King Orders AT&T Mail Service" discusses how "the E-mail network will replace a manual, paper-based tracking and ordering system."

The Examiner requests that the applicant provide the Office with any known information relevant to the above mentioned product launch.
